I offer my condolences to the family and friends of Mable White. Some people come into your life for a reason and some come for a season. Mable's reason was to charm us with her infectious smile and warm personality. I met Mable when I joined the Pratt family in 1982 and worked side by side with her at two branches, HRR and EDM. Friendly, kindhearted, bubbly personality, organized, detail oriented and a giver of hope and wisdom are words to describe Mable. Now it is her season to sing in that heavenly choir among the angels. Heavy hearts and tears, memories and laughter is what the Pratt family is feeling right now but we all know that Mable will never be forgotten she will forever shine as a beacon at Pratt. Thanks for the memories Marsha Butler

I am truly missing Mable, she was very out spoken but a gentle spirited person. Although our conversations were brief she managed to say a lot and always ending it with a chuckle. . She has left a lasting impression with me and I am grateful for that. My only regret is that I didn't get the opportunity to know her better. Thanks for the memories Mable, Missing you today, yesterday and tomorrow

From My Heart To You Mable. For 26 years we shared this love, no question about it, this was given from above. Like children we played, sometimes ran in the rain. Strangers often thought we both were insane. Lucky are 2 souls that share so much, How I miss your voice, and your tender touch. No longer is there laughter for us to share, but it's Ok, God's love is still there. Life is everlasting, it just changes form. The memories of my heart, will forever be warm. Peaceful rest has come, in Grace you now reside. I will always cherish the days spent by your side. Raymond. Baltimore, MD.
