To Carol and Family:I will always remember your mother's gentle unassuming spirit. I think it truly pained her to say no to a child's request for anything. She was so eager to oblige us as kids when we asked for peanut butter candy, pot pie and beans, or dandelion and bacon. She was unselfish as it seemed to please her most when she made someone else happy. I'll always remember the sound of her laughter and how she thoroughly enjoyed just sitting and listening to others. I loved her smile and the sound of her voice when she read to us. She has left a beautiful family and a wonderful legacy; and amazingly did it all on her own volition.So I am truly sorry for this great loss. I will always hold dear her memory as "Aunt Flo."Nancy "Janie" Keister Jeannerat

Carol and family: We send our condolences and will always remember the aunt that we grew up with. She lived with us for over 20 years, and even though we haven't seen her for awhile, we feel the emptiness she leaves behind. So many memories! She is at home in Heaven and may she rest in peace. Remembering forever, the PA Keisters

I would like to express my sincere sympathy to the family during your time of sorrow. Please keep in mind the comfort that God offers when we face any kind of distress. Also, he is a refuge and strength for us, a help that is readily to be found during difficult times (Psalm 46:1). As you endure the days ahead, may God give you peace and comfort.
