I write you with heartfelt condolences at this sad time. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible where he assures us (1 Corinthians 15:26) says "And the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." Jehovah will really defeat our enemy death and it will be gone forever. Tears of sorrow will vanish (Revelation 21:3-4). No one will die from natural causes or weep. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you during this sad time (2 Corinthis 1:3-4). For more encouragement please visit www.Jw.org.

O Our dear sister Mary has left us With little time to say goodbye She was a very kind and gentle person Never wishing to call attention to herself Even in her final days She thought of others -- not herself She found joy in simple things Cooking, flowers, animals, all of nature Her sense of humor was a delight to all. She brought out the goodness in people Never passing judgement on their shortcomings Children were here greatest joy Especially her grandchildren Her love for them was contagious; They knew it and gave that love back. Above all we remember her kindness It was like a golden chain That bound us all together We mourn the loss of our sister Mary But we are better for having known you Rest now mary, rest with God Ask Him to watch over us Like you always did

Mary-Always had a smile and a kind word. Loved playing cards with her son-in-law, and bowling. Was always concerned about others and had a do-something spirituality. We can now pray to her, not for her. Dan McFadden and St Christopher's Prayer Group

To all my cousins, Aunt Mary will forever be in our hearts. She was truly a tremendous woman, mother, aunt, friend and of course Nana. I am saddened by her loss but also happy for her that she is now with the other members of her family that have passed. I still have my Dads candle and have lit it in her memory tonight. Love, Bruce
