Pamela Renae Smith

MAR 16, 1956 - MAY 17, 2014

God's angels called Pam to her new home on Saturday, May 17, 2014.

She will always be remembered as one of the most caring and giving persons we've known. Pam was genuinely concerned about the welfare of others and often put her personal concerns on hold to assist them. Her sense of humor brought a smile to all faces despite the trials and tribulations that are inevitable in this journey we call life.

We'll miss her tremendously, but know that we'll see her again one day. On this final journey, Pam leaves James C. Smith (spouse); Jason O. Johnson (Smith) (son); Helen E. Johnson (mother); Larry Johnson (brother); Helen A. Johnson (sister); Christopher Johnson (brother). Other siblings include Lee Frank Johnson (deceased); and Michael Johnson (deceased).

In addition to these family members, a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, In-laws, and friends were touched by Pam's warmth. We would like to keep her with us forever, but realize that she has done her part here, and a new chapter has begun.

God bless.

I am deeply sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Jehovah God assures us that our dear loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. Jehovah God also promises: "And he (Almighty God Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Death will be removed from all the earth (1Corinthians 15:26) Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you (2Corinthians 1:3,4) For more encouragement please visit www.Jw.org.

Pam you are a very loving and sweet woman. I love you! You have always brought a smile to my face and the people around you. Pam you will be missed. God wanted you to come home. Soon as Pam entered a room all eyes were on her, she just made you feel so loved. I truly miss you. God has called an angel home. R.I.P. Pam.

Gale Powell lit a candle in honor of Pamela.

I can't believe I am writing this. Pam and I were best friends in high school. She and her husband James, who was in the Armed Services, would travel back and forth to our home state of Fayetteville, NC. She and James would bring items from my Mom. :o) I can't believe that I am writing this. We just connected last year, I believe, and lost touch again. I saw that she was ill from a post on facebook but the last post I saw, she was getting better. I remember reaching out to Jason to ask how Pam was but I don't remember receiving a reply. Pam lost her brother Lee about two years ago I believe. He was my first boyfriend. I know the Johnson family well. Pam was a very giving person. She was very special and I still can't believe I'm writing about Pam!!! She is an Angel. She loved Jason. She liked to make you laugh. Always jovial! Never a bad attitude. Awesome personality! Beautiful!
