My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4) For more encouragement please visit www.Jw.org. Hello. I'm Billy's son Billy, Jr. Thanks to the folks here at Lasting Tributes for their kindness to my mother and for their efficiency in all things. There's so much I could say about my father and why I loved him, but I'd like to talk about a specific thing that I know he'd like: He grew the best tomatoes. Ever. Every tomato I've ever eaten has been compared, in my mind and taste buds, to those he grew. It may have had something to do with the soil, when the sun hit the plants, and hard work - but if there's an "it" factor for it, he had it. His friends - none of whom were slouches when it came to raising the red fruit - were always getting on my father on how he did it. I love you, Dad, and am glad you're at peace.
