Kevin Eugene Steele

APR 1, 1967 - JUN 26, 2014

Kevin Eugene Steele, age 47, died in Washington, DC on June 25, 2014. Born on April 1, 1967, in Phoenix, Arizona, Kevin grew up as a “military brat” and lived on the west coast and Germany before settling in Washington, DC. He graduated from Desert Junior-Senior High School in 1985 and attended Antelope Valley College and Prince George’s Community College. He worked as a Senior Legal Research Associate for Westlaw Court Express, a Thomson Reuters Company, until July 2013.

Kevin touched everyone who knew him and treasured his friendships. He will be remembered for having a wonderful smile, quick wit, and making people laugh. Kevin was the life of the party, who enjoyed dancing, listening to music, and hanging out with his friends. He loved dogs, especially puppies.

Survivors include his mother, Elsie Moore Smith of Millersville, Maryland; father, Joseph F. Smith of Annapolis, Maryland; sister, Tonia R. Smith of Laurel, Maryland; and a host of relatives and special friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in his honor to The DC Center for the LGBT Community, 2000 14th Street NW, Suite 105, Washington, DC 20009.

I wanted to reach out an introduce myself. My name is Ellia Asha di Ningrat and I am Kevin's younger sister. There are eight of us in total, Kevin was the oldest and my little brother Liu Seong is the youngest. He is 23.I really wish I could have gotten to know my older brother. The only photo I had of him growing up was when he was very young. My younger brother looks identical to Kevin, to the point where when he was little he saw a photo of Kevin in the living room and thought it was him.Tonight is the first time I have seen a photo of Kevin as an adult, and it is also the night I became aware of his passing. I wanted to express my deepest condolences and although I never met Kevin, the loss is felt deeply. I have attached a photo, and I hope that is okay.I would love to make contact with you and can be reached at elliasha@gmail.com. I'm also on Facebook.Much love,Ellia Asha

I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. Hi Thomas, I was wondering if I could make contact with you. I'm a long lost sister of Kevin's. We never met, but I posted a comment above. We have the same birth father.
