My Uncle Bud is loved by me and my family, but he also earned my deepest respect. During difficult times in my training as a physician, Uncle Bud and Aunt Peg provided a relaxing haven for us as a family. We developed a deep respect for their hospitality, their ability to create a calm, fun, relaxing refuge for us. We not only have fond memories of the family gatherings, but we are still grateful for the 'Creighton hospitality.' It was very important to us. I also respect his hard work and professional accomplishments, his great ability to have a good time, his love and respect of family, his patriotic service, and particularly, his choice for his wife, wonderful Peg. He is missed, but will always be remembered by Marla, me and my 4 boys with great fondness and love.

I have fond memories of my Uncle Bud who was always full of fun and love for the children in our family. He was a good example of someone who was successful in his employment and who also knew how to enjoy life with friends and family. I know that Peggy is one of the greatest blessings of his life and our prayers are with her and her family at this difficult time. Love, Lorill Bennion Solomon and family
