To the most handsome man ever, Uncle Buck. Thank you for all the wisdom and advice. The times we spent with you will always be cherished. Most memorable times were spent in the backyard, whether playing with fireworks or having to wear your clothes cause Tarrah threw up all over me on my birthday. Thank you for always helping with our hobbies and showing interest in the activities we loved. We love you always and miss you. Love, Rob, Danielle, Lindsey & Tarrah.

Thanks Uncle Buck for mending Ryans' head back together after he ran into the post in your back yard. You were a Jack of all Trades for sure, and i will never forget those Buttermilk Pancakes you made us for breakfast... Thanks for so many different memories. Love Stephanie
