Norma Harriet Lavery

AUG 18, 1925 - DEC 28, 2014

Lavery, Norma, of Annapolis, MD, passed away peacefully on December 28, 2014.

She was born on August 18, 1925 and grew up in Maine. Norma was a loving wife to John, her dear husband of 53 years, who passed away in 2012. She is survived and so well loved by her children, Linda Armstrong and Steve, Susan Lowen and Martin, and grandchildren Thomas and wife Nadege, Matthew, Michael, and Evelyn.

Norma was an avid reader, played bridge, and enjoyed gardening and flower arranging. She worked for more than 20 years preparing income taxes and loved the challenge of a busy tax season. Norma adored her family and friends and was happy being with people. She had a wonderful laugh, and she made everyone feel so loved and treasured.

A Memorial service celebrating Norma's life will be held on Monday, January 5th at 10:30 am at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 522 Main Street in Laurel, MD.

Memorial contributions may be given in Norma's memory to St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 522 Main Street in Laurel, MD 20707 or to Hospice of the Chesapeake, 90 Ritchie Highway, Pasadena, MD 21122.

I was so saddened to hear of Norma's passing, I had the privilege of working with her at H&R Block , she was so vivacious, intelligent, positive, and I loved her dearly. We took our job seriously but we had a great group of people and we were able to laugh and just enjoy each day. My thoughts & prayers go out to her family, it's a sad time , but may all of the wonderful memories they have of Norma bring them smiles.Nancy LaFon-Barnett

To Norma's family my sincere condolences. I met Norma through a mutual friend in Md with whom she worked at Block. I live on Panther Pond ME in the summers and every summer for the past several summers I would enjoy a special visit with Norma. We also both had successfulTrigeminal Neuralgia surgeries which we liked to chat about. She was so kind and pleasant and upbeat. I was glad to have known her.Debbie Auclair
