We grieve for your loss, but know that she was a beloved child and friend who touched so many from the tributes and stories we have read. We believe in God's promises and that He is holding our daughters right now. We will continue to pray for your healing through this time. Dear Family of Olivia, I did not know your beloved personally, but reading the obituary tells me she was a young person full of fun and laughter and kindness. I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. The death of a loved one, especially a child is one, if not the most difficult trial a parent must endure in their lifetime. As a parent I wanted to provide words of comfort to the family that I have found especially comforting during the loss of a loved one. First please consider what God's Word tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 in the King James version: "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." Yes, our Heavenly Father's Inspired Word tells us at Ecclesiastes 3:11 in the New International Version: "... He has also set eternity in the human heart...". Yes, no sane person wants to die, but yet we all do. When Jesus Christ was on the earth he showed us the hope his Father, Jehovah had promised to all those that fall asleep in death. Please take a moment and read John 5:28,29 where we are told: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice [the voice of Jesus] and come out." Do you recall the resurrection of Jesus' dear friend Lazarus recorded in the Bible book of John 11:11-44? Lazarus' family rejoiced after Jesus performed this miracle. Please dear family, hold onto these promises from our God, cherish the wonderful memories you have of this beautiful Olivia, whose life ended so soon and know that soon yes, you have the opportunity to welcome Olivia back to a paradise earth where your family will once again hug, kiss and rejoice to see her again. Revelation 21:4 states: "And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away." Keep these thoughts dear to your pained heart and know that Jehovah God cares for your family and what you are experiencing. Sincerely, Linda Dyson, Park Hall, MD

We had known her briefly, but smiled remembering her new room at Turkey Point, hating her vegetables, and getting a dog - all things shared by many and so much more. We hope in some small way it brings you comfort to know how many people she touched and the joy she brought them - thank you for the strength to share your memories with us. Dorothy, Steve and Chloe, Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. We have spent the past few days looking at pictures of Olivia when her and Christina were younger. The teddy bear picnic in Mrs. Holts class, pictures from Emma Thompsons birthday party and when the whole group of girls were at the Riva Trace Bible school, She grew up to be such a lovely girl and Christina would show pictures of her and Chloe as they were getting older to us. Michael was in class with Chloe from 2nd grade through 5th and she was always such a sweet girl and i can only imagine what you are going through but always know that everyone is here for you and that there is love surrounding you at all times and that special angel that god now has will always watch out for all of you and he will keep her safe now. We first got to know Olivia very well in the summer of 2009 when she cared for our new born puppies Zac and Zoe. She came to our house twice a day, sometimes three, to take the puppies outside, to feed them and to play with them. She loved them like her own, and they really loved her! She was truly a remarkably gifted child, with a heart of gold, kind to everyone, especially those that were tender and needed a friend. Gary, Zac, Zoe and I will miss her always. We love you Dorothy Steve and Chloe, all our prayers are about you. Know she is with the Lord. Max Lucado said ""ironically the first person to accept God's decision of death is the one who dies. While we are shaking our heads in disbelief, they are lifting hands in worship. While we are mourning at a grave, they are marveling at heaven. While we are questioning God, they are praising God." We know that Olivia is with her friend and father in heaven, in peace, watching over all of us, especially her Mom, Dad and sister. xxoxoxoxox
