Reflecting on memories of our neighbor Todd - We will miss his wave to us as he headed out to walk the dog. We will remember how there was always compassion and concern in his voice as he asked or talked about others and how they were doing. We will always think fondly of that young man who grew up in the house across the street and was a friend to all. With Sympathy;

I met Todd 23yrs ago when I shared a house w/Kenny&Jimmy, then moved across the street w/my in-laws a few years later. He was an intergral part of our daily lives. He made me laugh, he hugged me when I cried - life happened&I lost touch. I am devastated by the news of his passing & whatever the circumstances, Tod & I hope for him to find peace. xo,Michelle Miller - Nicklin

To my oldest friend whom or families were so close when we were 7-8 years old!! Since I've found of your passing through Melissa, I have had many overwhelming memories from when you were on 17th street and myself on Ingersoll street in Huntington, Sta. NY. The crap we pulled off you could never get away with today. All the racing memories, the bike racing we used to do like when we rode our bicycles up and down New York Avenue riding wheelies and disrupting traffic. For that matter even riding to the Walt Whitman mall and riding our bikes through there until we got thrown out by the cops!! Chasing girls in the mall and hanging out at Spencers gifts looking at all the hippy crap. How about going to Islip Speedway and jumping over the barbed wire fence so we didn't have to pay and then eating pizza's and Italian ices to we would almost throw up!The sleep overs that our families would do at each others house during bad storms. we would beat the crap out of our sisters and also Brett until he got to big for us when he was like10!! I remember playing with all the hot wheels we had, although you had more than I and playing on the tracks of plywood your grandfather made for you and Brett. Bombing trucks with snow balls on Depot rd and even getting chased by some maniac through the woods when we pissed him off for bombing his car. Oh why not throw in when my mother saw me throw a wrench at my sister Melissa because she didn't want to race bikes with us, and nearly beat me to death in front of you and Brett!! That was a good one.Since then we were only able to see each other at Williams Grove once in while with Big Joe but the memories will always be with me!!!To Craig, Jane, Brett, and Lauren, Melissa, Stephanie and I have heavy hearts for you and the family.Todd, I hope the good Lord has built a great dirt track up there so you can go every night!!You will be missed from your old friend, Kenny
