I feel fortunate to have been one of Sandra's many friends. She was a gentle, kind, and caring soul. She was a dedicated massage therapist and healer who helped many people with her healing touch and spirit. She also had a wonderful gift for bringing friends together for potluck dinners and other fun adventures. She is greatly missed! Sincere condolences to her family for their great loss. I met Sandra when she was a member of a local fitness center. I fell in love with her, her positive outlook, her kind heart and her quick wit. She was a true favorite of all the members and staff. We often hung around and caught up with one another even after our work-outs. If I had gardening questions, Sandy was always there with suggestions and ideas. I so admired her ability to re-invent herself as a massage therapist; she relieved many of my aches and pains those days. Sandy was a blessing to so many who were lucky enough to have met her and spent some time with her. As I gather flowers from my garden this summer, I will think of her; she was truly a beautiful flower in my collection of friends. Rest in peace my dear and may eternal light shine upon you. My sincere sympathy to Sandy's family and friends for their loss. In my thoughts and prayers, Monica Keen

I am thankful that I got to see Sandy this past Thanksgiving. She was cheerful and as interested in what I had to say as ever. She brought me several narcissus bulbs that she had arranged in a shallow dish with pebbles. I enjoyed watching them grow green and strong and tall. Once they bloomed they filled my nursing home room with beauty and a lovely scent. I still marvel that she could have been so thoughtful and nurturing despite her own suffering. Intent on bringing me some joy. Jill McConkey
