I can't express enough how DEEPLY sad I am that Mr James has "fallen asleep in death". Death has a painful sting...even God's own perfect Son, Jesus Christ, "gave way to tears" (John 11:35) when his friend, Lazarus, died. Mr James was a very nice person and expressed his love for his family...especially his wife, Ms Veronica. I have only known Mr James for about 7 years through my employment and during that time and on time each month, here he comes in the truck! We never finished our last conversation from January 2....Clarksville TN! He is now in Our Creators memory and is awaiting the promised resurrection (Acts 24:15) and the promise of "no more death and sorrow (1 Corinthians 15:54, 55 and Revelations 21:3-5). Mr James will not be forgotten. Ms Veronica, I offer my heartfelt sympathy to you and your entire family for your tremendous loss...I will pray for your family.

Big Mac, I will never forget you or let you out of my heart. You were a true friend to me and will truly be missed. I now have my very own sergeant at arms always looking down upon me, protecting me from the heavens. I am not sure how the world will go on without, but there will definitely be a void. I miss you already my friend. With great love and undying devotion to you and your memory, Tanya aka Baby Girl
