Mary Jo Krause

JUN 2, 1933 - NOV 22, 2015

Mary Jo Krause passed away peacefully in her home on Sunday, November 22, 2015.

Mary Jo was born June 2, 1933 to beloved parents Georgia and James Joseph Kelly.

Her career included working as a secretary for a homicide detective in Wheaton, MD. Some of her interests included spending time with her family as well as reading books about history and mysteries. One thing Mary was most proud of was that her grandfather, Joseph James Kelley, was a member of the original Baltimore Orioles. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1971.

She was preceded in death by her brother Jimmy Kelley, as well as daughter, Kathy Smith, and son, James Bartholemew.

She is survived by two daughters, Colleen Noll, and Lauren Stahl; and son, Michael Kelley. She has 13 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren; and numerous other family members who will take comfort in remembering her wonderful life.

I echo those perfectly worded sentiments of my wonderful sister, Kim. Mary Jo was fun to be around. Colleen should be very proud of the way she cared for her Mom. May the Lord take good care of her and her brother, Jimmy (my Dad). Jim Kelley (spooky)

I have many fond memories of spending time with Aunt Mary Jo. Some of my most treasured times were holidays at the "Kelley's" or vacationing in Ocean City. Suffice to say, there was never a dull moment. Thanks for the memories... 🍀❤️ Much love, Kim
