Heidi, we'll miss your warm smile and pleasant words of greeting whenever we met no matter where -and it seems you were always out and about in Annapolis in many social places. Jeanne and John

Heidi was such a lovely person -- always cheerful and often witty. Nick and I (Leigh), her across-the-way neighbors, miss her smile, and Leigh will miss talking about gardening. And Spanish classes. I admired her that she stayed so active. To Heidi's sisters, in-laws, niece, nephew and friends, all of our condolences and prayers. I will keep a candle burning for her come All Hallow's Eve and All Souls' Day this year.

Working at Maryland Hall, my husband and I had the opportunity to often talk to Heidi. She was a fascinating person with a true love of life. She inspired those of us whom she shared stories of her life with. Our lives are definitely greener for having known her and the world a better place for those whom she touched with her kindness. While we are saddened by her passing, we celebrate her life with fond memories. Leslie Xavier and Ted Wisniewski
