To the Bryan family, my sincere condolences on the loss of Kevin. I work with Walter and he spent a lot of time talking to me about his brother. About how much he enjoyed skiing, his motorcycles, and life in general. I'm also glad that he had a chance to spend time with him at the end. Walter said he would lay up in the bed with him to help keep him comfortable and he said he would get restless and wake up, look over and see Walter and just have that big smile. I think it was good for the both of them. At least he got a chance to spend some time with him, a lot of people never get the chance. I never had the opportunity to meet Kevin, but he was anything like Walter, I'm sure he was a fine gentleman, and may God bless the family.

My connection to Kevin goes back to the days that we were students at Parole (now Mills-Parole) Elementary School. We were neighbors living side by side. When we became teenagers, we each delivered newspapers for the News American which covered a large area. On Sunday's, before the sun came up, we would meet and put in the inserts and because of size of the paper, work as a team making our deliveries. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to spend a couple of hours with him and family members before his transition! May God and the power of the Holy Spirit sustain his family in this their season of bereavement. In His Service, Charles "Butch" SEMBLY
