Just recently, I was in the 7/11 and searching for saltines because of an upset tummy, Dana noticed my wandering the aisles and actually came around to help with my search, despite his difficulties walking. At that point, I felt so guilty, I told him not to bother further but Dana even asked the manager to pull some saltines out of storage in the back for me. What a sweetheart! He's now with God in heaven, looking down on us all and smiling, I'm sure!
