Betty D. Rigoli

AUG 11, 1931 - MAR 8, 2012

Elizabeth "Betty" Duvall Rigoli August 11, 1931 - March 8, 2012 It is with great sadness, the Rigoli family announces the passing of Betty Rigoli, beloved wife and mother.

Betty is survived by her husband of 50 years, William L. Rigoli, where they both lived together for over 40 years in their home on Mill Creek Betty is also survived by her loving children, Edward duBois Early, Jr. and his wife Terry Lawler, of Sour Lake, TX, her daughter, Michelle Leigh Duvall and her husband Alfred J. Zentgraf, Jr., of Love Point, Kent Island, and her youngest son, Steven Duvall Rigoli and his wife Tammy Lynn and their son, Michael Duvall Rigoli.

Michael is Betty's only Grandchild and her heart's forever pride and joy. Betty is also survived by her loving brother, William Henry Duvall, III, and many wonderful cousins and friends.

Betty was an alum of Western Maryland College and a member of the St. Margaret's Church, Westminster Parish. Betty retired after many years as the Editor of Chesapeake Bay Magazine, a career she truly enjoyed.

There will be a private family only viewing on March 12, 2012, 6 to 8 p.m. at the Lasting Tributes Cremation & Funeral Care, 814 Bestgate Road, Annapolis, Maryland 21401. There will be an 11 a.m. graveside service, Tuesday, March 13, 2012, that will welcome all family and friends, to be held at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster Parish.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations may be made in Betty's name to Hospice of the Chesapeake, Anne Arundel Medical Center, or Future Care of the Chesapeake.

Dear Mom (and the entire Rigoli Family and Friends) I don't think Mom or anyone else has ever really known how much I loved her and how much she has meant to me over the last 28 years that I have been blessed, and yes I say BLESSED, to be a part of your family. All families have their issues - and boy did we have ours...It is now that I have great regret that I did not tell her all the things I say here. Please do not let this be the case for you when someone else you love has gone Home to Our Heavenly Father.~~~~~Mom, I hope now that you are in heaven and finally at peace, you now fully know how much I truly loved, and still love, YOU and your family. You were like a mother to me and treated me as if I were your daughter - I will never forget all the wonderful times we had vacationing in Rehoboth together, all the shopping, all the walks together on the boardwalk, all the times we would sneak and get Thrashers Fries when we were shopping and vow to never tell Steve or Pop, and all the wonderful nights we had going out to dinner - these are the things I am choosing to remember -ALL THE GOOD MEMORIES - FOR THIS IS WHAT YOU SO DESERVE!! I heard this song today and wanted to share with you, our family and friends, my edited version of this song, which reflects how I truly feel."NEVER ALONE - VERSION 2"By: Tammy Rigoli "TOTALLY WITH PEACE COMFORT AND LOVE!"May our Heavenly Father and His Angels protect you, troubles neglect you, knowing that you have found peace and happiness now that Heaven has accepted you. May you always have plenty, the glass never empty, and know in your heart, YOU WERE NEVER ALONE. May your tears finally be washed away, all of your pain and sadness have now disappeared, knowing you are at peace that you are finally Home. May you win and stay humble, smile now instead of grumble, knowing that you are finally home and knowing that you have NEVER BEEN ALONE. You will be in every beat of our hearts when we face the unknown. I found great peace and comfort to have been blessed by our Heavenly Father to be with you the last days of your earthly life, to witness your rebirth to Our Heavenly Father, to be given the strength and the knowledge to help guide and prepare our loved ones to be blessed to witness your final transition Home, your rebirth to Our Heavenly Father, and both you and I knowing that this wasn't goodbye. Our love for you will always be with you and stay with you 'til we can be together again when He calls us Home. Knowing this - I know we will NEVER BE ALONE. Well, I have to be honest, I do not believe that cold winds won't blow. So when hard times have found us and fears surround us, I will wrap your love and His love around us, knowing we are NEVER ALONE. NEVER ALONE, NEVER ALONE You'll be in every beat of our heart when we face the unknown. Wherever we go we know that this wasn't goodbye. Your love will follow us, stay with us, wherever we go, as we all know WE ARE NEVER ALONE. GOD BLESS YOU ALL!
