Mafalda was a warm and caring person, who always made people feel welcomed in her presence. John, Sherri and the DeBari family, we love you and grieve with you. Her moving to her Heavenly home is bittersweet - she'll be missed here on earth, but presently she's spending the New Year 2017 with Jesus, her beloved husband, Carlo and all who have gone before her. Those of us who knew her are blessed indeed! Much love to her family.
