Sharon Addison

APR 7, 1945 - JAN 20, 2017

Sharon Lockwood Addison was born on April 7, 1945 in Jersey City, NJ to Miriam (Quirk) Lockwood and the late Charles Lockwood, Jr. She attended Red Bank Catholic High School in New Jersey; graduating class of 1963. She then continued her education at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York; graduating in 1966. She began a career in retail merchandising, working as a buyer for Bambergers, Saks Fifth Avenue, Filene's and Country Curtains in Connecticut. She later began her own business, Carriage Curtains. Her last three places of employment were Lilyette and Sterling in New York and St. John Knits in Queenstown.

On April 12, 1997, she married Kenneth Wynn Addison and resided in Red Bank, NJ. In 1999, they moved to Queenstown, MD and in 2015 to Annapolis, MD.

Sharon was an active member of the Democratic Club of Queen Anne's County.

In addition to her husband, Ken, she is survived by two step daughters, Julie Addison and Helen Addison; and two brothers, Charles Lockwood III and Mark Lockwood.

A Life Celebration will be held at a later date. For those who would like to attend, please contact the family directly.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the ASPCA at www.asPCA.org/donate

Sharon was so full of joy and interest in life -- her energy was contagious. She added so much to the spirit of our community. I will always remember the way in which she met the obstacles she had to deal with with courage and a smile. I'm so sorry for your family's loss. May you find comfort in the memories of her love. Sharon was a dear and very special lady, with a wonderful attitude and sense of humor always!! She touched everyone she met in a very positive way. Her fierce determination and independent spirit set the bar pretty high for the rest of us. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her. I look forward to meeting up with Sharon again and enjoying a glass of wine together, with laughter and smiles all around!! Linda and Leonard Flood

Jeannette & Shawn lit a candle in honor of Sharon .

As next door neighbors, Sharon was always so happy, positive and beautifully dressed. She was so strong the whole time and put up such a great fight, all the way till the very end. She will be so missed and our prayers and condolences are with Ken, Helen and Julie.
