Gale lived a wonderful life. She found joy and happiness in life's struggles, and never shied away from a challenge. She enjoyed crocheting (yarning as her son called it), television, and good food. She believed in God, forgiveness, and family. She was, and will always be, loved.

I remembered meeting Gale in Junior High. We hit it off right away. Dating, time, and business got in the way. She visited me about 20 years ago, time may of past, but there was still the connection. I didn't hear from her and had know idea she was sick. I've lost 5 old friends over the last few years. Dear friend I hope to meet you on the other side one day. I will know you by your beautiful smile and kindness in your eyes. You were one of a kind. Love and remembering, Karyl Remesch Koch
