My favorite memory with my Brother, was a day we went fishing the Sanibel Causeway in Florida. We teased one another, laughed, and joked about who was going to catch the biggest fish. All afternoon our bodies faced the setting afternoon sun. Soon after only catching a few small pin fish and several fighting lady fish we decided it was time to leave for home. The only keeper we caught that day was a really bad sunburn down the the whole right side of our bodies. More laughs ensued when we decided to stop at the fish market so we could have an awesome seafood dinner. Grouper for diner...YUM. Always on my mind, Forever in my heart. Sending love to my big brother, Skip.
