Edmond Alan Proulx Jr.

AUG 14, 2002 - MAR 1, 2019

Edmond A. Proulx, Jr., age 16, died on Friday, March 1, 2019.

He was born at a US Army Hospital in Wurzburg, Germany to his parents, Judith and Edmond, Sr. As a devoted Christian, Ed was active in his church's student ministry. He always put others first and valued his volunteer work. He participated in missions trips to the Navajo Nation, Mexico, and Memphis for Street Reach.

Ed was quick to flash his smile and offer a helping hand. Baseball and pitching were among his passions. He loved playing the game - for the Blue Crabs, the Green Hornets, and his teams in Arizona and Europe. He was a hard worker and loved helping out at his aunt and uncle's farm in Tennessee.

Living abroad, traveling, and experiencing the cultures and traditions from around the world and across the USA brought much enjoyment to Ed's life. He is survived by his parents, his brothers Christian and Joel, his sister Lydia, and a large extended family.

All are invited to Bay Area Community Church, 884 Chesterfield Road, Annapolis, MD 21401, for Ed's memorial service on Saturday, March 9, 2019 beginning at 11:00 am. In lieu of flowers, please contact Bay Area Community Church to donate to this summer's missions trip to El Salvador that Ed was a part of.

Ed made such a heavy impact on my life without even knowing it. We had multiple classes and went to high school together and recently before he ended his life, he sent me a text message, it was one of the kindest and deeply honest messages I've ever received, and I will appreciate that the rest of my life. thank you for the kindness you brought me.

Eddie was my sweet little helper in children's church back in GK, Germany. I remember Eddie as an amazing little boy always smiling and offering to help me with whatever I needed. He was always around! I mean always! I remember his kind loving heart and his infectious smile. Not to say he wasn't a normal little boy who would hide in the back room at the chapel with my son who was a year older and then jump out and scare the bejuzus out of me! then they would both laugh and run off! I was stationed at Gk for 12 years and had come across many people and children-being the Children's church coordinator for most of that time. But no one touched my heart like Eddie did! He is one of the faces I always remember when thinking back to that time in Germany. His love for God even at that young age really touched me. and the fact that he made me laugh ALOT! when I finally left Gk I remember having a dinner at one of the local restaurants and people came to say farewell to me and my family. I remember when it got to Eddie's family to say goodbye he teared up. and came and gave me a huge hug.Now remember he was only about 6 years old at the time. that made me really start crying. He was a big part of Germany that I would miss- along with the whole family! I love you Judi and no matter what -you are my sister in Christ and I am here for you. I still live in Germany-just a different part. i wish I could be there with your family, this Saturday! but I will be spending the day praying for all of you.I know that Eddie may not remember me..I was just a blip in his life, bet I have always remembered him and will continue to treasure that time with him.I don't have any pictures,i looked but I have many memories in my mind! I wish I could share those with you. I pray for you and your family and Eddie everyday -since i have heard the news. Eddie you will always be in heart and I can't wait to see that beautiful smile again someday!

Playing Risk for hours, trying out MREs, making Star Wars pancakes, toasting marshmallows in the backyard, listening to Bon Jovi over and over again on the way home from football/baseball games, endless nerf gun battles...Our weekends with the Proulx boys in Germany were so much fun. Ed and Judi, thank you for sharing your kids with us. Ben and Jake were blessed by Eddie's friendship. We love you all and pray for God's love to comfort and heal in the days ahead. -Beth, Randy, Ben and Jake
