IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY BEAUTIFUL HUSBAND JACK COTTER I will be missing you dear Jack and be sitting alone now in the darkness of despair. I will be crying silent tears. My heart is broken into a million tiny pieces. The silence is deafening to my ears. The darkness frightens me and the shadows climb the wall. I hear your footsteps walking, passing through the halls. The loneliness surrounds me; it takes my breath away. This will now be the pattern of my life, since that awful, dreadful day of March 26, without a clue, without a hint of what was yet to be. But God called you home to be with him and took you away from me. I will now walk and talk and I will carry on when the sun pokes out its head, but when darkness falls and evening comes, I cannot go to bed. For this is when I miss you most of all. When I curl into a little ball and cry those silent tears watching the shadows and missing you so very much. Thank you for a great life of 48 years of marriage. Love always and bye for now. YOUR LOVING WIFE JUDITH COTTER
