The moment I met Steve, there was something very genuine about him that I liked. He had a heart of gold. After knowing Steve and Lisa for several months, we all decided to attend Alpha together at St John the Evangelist and I was very moved by Steve's connection to God that was growing stronger each week. Steve really made an imprint on my soul and I thank him so much for that.

I grew up with Steve in North Linthicum. We were childhood friends. Both of us were very competitive and I believe this is something we both continued throughout our lives. I have si many fond memories with Steve. We both attended St. Clements and Cardinal Gibbons together. But went our separate ways after the flood of 1972 Agnes forced our families to sell their homes. Tried to reconnect but could never seem to find Steve on Social media. Both Seve and I were raised Catholic. RIP my friend until we meet again. 🙏😭❤️
