A family member's passing brings transition; it is always difficult. We're thinking of all of Chris' family this week and wish we could physically be there. Peace and Love, Uncle Larry and Aunt Bec

I first met Chris when he and Michelle started dating. He was fun, bright, ambitious, and spontaneous. He loved his wife and family as much as he possibly could. His restaurant was his pride and joy -- new renovations, regular upgrades to the menu, dedicated staff. He was a good host, a great chef, and good manager. Restaurants give all their owners a challenge, but he survived the restaurant troubles. He had a terrific smile and a good sense of humor. He is missed!!! Sincere condolences to his family in this difficult time. Donna Salisbury

Chris was a wonderful chef and proud of his restaurant Christopher's. Bonnie and I enjoyed many dinners there with friends. Chris always made the point to come out to make sure everything was perfect but mostly I think to share some laughs. His smile and sense of humor will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family. Paul Traynham and Bonnie Pink
