Sending my Deepest condolences & Sympathy to the family. She will truly be missed by all the knew & Loved her. I will cherish the memories we shared together. I will continue to lift the family up in prayer.God bless you all. From Myra & DES

Asst. Pastor Karen Tongue lit a candle in honor of Maude.

Middy is a beautiful soul. Her smile and laughter can never be forgotten. She and her siblings were the girl children before I got close to him so that makes us sister's by our blood and love for each other. The boys looked out for all of us. I may not be able to be there physically on Saturday, but my heart is already there knowing she's with her Savior. If I had not had so many beautiful moments with Middy, Randy and Aunt Bea, how could I know to miss them so much. Yet, the cherished memories will help me to keep pressing on. Until we meet again, Cousin Karen, Sharnae, Michael III, Michael IV & Brittany await the moment we shall all worship Him together in that great getting up morning. No titles today, just the love of family.
