"This was one hell of a happy-go-lucky-guy", as I always will remember him, the guy who could lift the spirits of a room, just by walking in with that big smile of his. At Bevaco, he was not only a business partner, but became a close friend of all. Working with Keith, Matt and Shawn at the yearly shows became an adventure in itself, but Keith and the guys were always ready, or made it so. They don't make GENTLEMEN like him now in these days, a guy who cared about everyone else, making sure things were handled to the best of his abilities. We will all miss him. God took away a great man too soon. Our sincere prayers and condolences to his wife, children, family and friends. May the Good Lord grant them solace in this time of grieving. A special condolence wish to Wayne and Joan Dwyer whose friendship we have treasured for years. May God ease their sorrow. To Keith, our prayers that God bestow on him the rewards for a life well-lived and for the joy he brought to others. May he Rest In Peace. Ron and Carol Skrzysowski (Ron Ski)
