George Truitt Price III

OCT 28, 1950 - NOV 17, 2020

George Truitt Price, 70, died on November 17, 2020 at his home in Odenton, MD. He was born in Camden, NJ to George and Rita Ficchi Price, who predeceased him. At age 16, he underwent neurosurgery for a brain tumor, which left him with several disabilities. In 1986, he moved with his parents to be closer to his sister in Maryland, and joined the church community at St. Elizabeth Seton in Crofton where he made several enduring friendships. He received employment and residential services from the Arc of Central Chesapeake. George was a lover of history, baseball, Motown, and Jeopardy. In recent years, he was further debilitated by heart attacks and a stroke but continued to bring joy and love to his family and caretakers.

George is survived by his sister Kathy Creighton and her husband Bill, and his beloved nieces Liz Hebb (Mike), Emily Verostic (Dave) and nephew Jay Creighton (Tasha) and his great nephew Luke Hebb. His family is eternally grateful to his Arc caregiving team, Neakia, Theresa, David, Julia, and Lakeisha. Private visitation will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the Arc of Central Chesapeake at arcccr.org/donate

Our condolences & prayers to you, Kathy & your family on George's passing. I have such fond memories of the times we all had when we would get together at our family gatherings of the cousins as kids. We would have such fun teasing each other and hiding from Gramma Price! I'm sure George is in a better place now with his Mom & Dad. I have suspicion his Uncle Jack & Aunt Lucy may also have join the welcome party. Maybe he may even have met Alex Trebeck! We will continue to say prayers for all of you. You were a great sister to George, Kathy and I will continue to keep all in my prayers. Love, Judy Koch & family

Kathy - I have such great memories of George and you when we were growing up together and our families weren't so spread out in distance. But take comfort in knowing George is now enjoying reuniting once again with the rest of the family....John Price

When I look at George's sweet, smiling face here, I see many years of his struggle to be whole behind him. He is once again a young man-- brilliant and curious beyond his years; handsome and tall. He is in the arms and hearts of angels-- heavenly angels and those he has left-- who walked by his side for so long. Rest in peace, George Truitt. Let your heart be comforted, Kathy, my dear life-long friend. Maryann Hickman Kintzing Devon Drive West Deptford, NJ

I cannot say how sad I am, Kathy and family. You know that as cousins, we spent so many hours together over the years as we were growing up. I cherish those days and George is always in my heart. I adored his sense of humor, which didn't seem to leave him after his surgery. His gentle nature will always be remembered. His struggle was also your struggle, and your dedication to him and love for him is a thing a beauty. May your heart find peace in the memories of George. Aunt Rita and Uncle George are surely there with open arms to welcome him.

Condolences to the Creighton family. George was fortunate to have your deep love and commitment to his wellbeing during his 34 years in Maryland. At social gatherings, George seemed happy telling jokes and sharing funny stories. I know he will be missed. I hope you take comfort in all your memories with George. No doubt Rita welcomed her son over the rainbow with a big hug. ❤️
