Scott Schneider

OCT 28, 1956 - DEC 12, 2020

Douglas Scott Schneider passed away on Dec. 12, 2020 at his home in Edgewater, MD after a courageous two year battle with cancer. Born on October 28, 1956 in Fort Benning, GA, he was the son of Joseph William Schneider Jr. and Emma Lew Bowers (Downs).

Scott grew up and attended school in Baltimore County. He received his B.A. from Western Maryland College where he became a brother of Gamma Beta Chi and formed many lifelong friendships. He then went on to get his M.A. from Frostburg State University. He spent most of his career in the truck equipment industry, working for Granturk Equipment Co. in Baltimore for the last 30 years. His bread and butter was selling refuse and recycling truck bodies and equipment. He loved his job and he loved his Granturk family and customers!

He lived in Baltimore County as a young man before moving to the Annapolis area and then realized his dream of living on the water in Queen Anne's County for ten years, eventually moving back to Anne Arundel County and settling in Edgewater, MD. He was an avid boater for many years. He loved the beach, particularly Fenwick Island and Bethany Beach, DE where he enjoyed being with family and relaxing. He was a golfer and always had his clubs in his trunk. Playing 18 holes with his son was a perfect day for him regardless of the weather. The fraternity golf trips were something that he looked forward to every year. He loved music, especially The Grateful Dead, Jimmy Buffett and James Taylor, who he finally saw in concert last year. Scott was a die-hard Orioles fan, a fan of Maryland Basketball, and he split his allegiance between the Redskins and Ravens football teams.

He loved his family dearly. Scott was preceded in death by his father and mother, his step-father, David L. Bowers, and his sister Lynn Schneider Staples. He is survived by his wife of 29 years, Deborah Lynn Schneider. He is also survived by his step-siblings Stuart Bowers (Mary), Beth Klaine (Tom) and Julie Minch (Paul), sons Clayton and Elliott Schneider, his step-son Gary Mitchell, and granddaughter Savannah Maietta, and his English Springer Spaniel, Guinness.

Scott, It's been a tough few days. I don't think you could appreciate the impact you had on your friends. Your Bete brothers have been sharing great remembrances and a lot of tears. I have so many good thoughts having known you since 1974, day one of our freshman year at WMC. I'll remember watching and talking and texting about the O's and Terps through good and bad. There were so many "you had to be there" times to appreciate. No one could understand those moments other than those of us fortunate enough to witness them. We will remember you fondly and get choked up talking about you at golf outings for a long time to come. As we were lifelong salesman, I always appreciated talking about the craft and challenges. To Debbie, Gary and Clayton – Mary and I are here for you and share your grief. Bob Le Sueur

For over 30 years visiting relatives in Maryland, Scott has to be the one I looked forward to seeing the most. Always looked forward to talking local sports with Scott, living in Florida he would catch me up on latest sports news, sometimes he would have little home improvement tasks to do around the house, which I enjoyed helping with, the one thing that stands out the most, he would always tell me on my last day of stay, that he was glad I came up and was always welcome to come back, that's going to be hard not to hear anymore from Scott.

I will miss Scott's big smile and happy personality. I always counted myself lucky to have him as a dear friend. It's such a loss for all of us and he will be missed with all of our hearts. Alexis, Kace and I send all of our love to Debbie and family.
