Theresa and I go waaay back, all the way to early elementary school. At some point, she introduced me to my first soap, "Dark Shadows". Since her house was on the way to mine, after school I would stop in and watch. I remember a few times staying up till the wee hours of the morning watching black and white tv. My memories of her are sweet. I was a gawky, shy, introvert with ultra curly hair and a funny name but that didn't bother her one bit. She accepted me and took me in as a friend. I am glad we had a chance to reconnect after all these years. I know she will be missed by her family but her long time friends will miss her as well. I love this verse and hope it will help as we grieve. Isaiah 41:13, "For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, fear not; I will help thee."

Ms. Theresa was a God send when my son Wayne was younger. She would watch out for him. One time the front door of our house was ajar. Wayne went to Ms. Theresa and told her. She grabbed a baseball bat and searched our house to make sure Wayne was ok. Theresa and I had many laughs together as our sons grew up together. My sympathies and prayers go out to the family and friends of Theresa.
