Margo Parker

FEB 11, 1942 - JUL 11, 2021

“Margo” or “Go” (as she was affectionately known), was the first daughter born to the late Rev. Floyd O. Snowden, Sr, and the late Martha Parker Snowden on February 11, 1942, in Annapolis, Maryland.

On Sunday, July 11, 2021 (after a lengthy illness), our dear Aunt Margo went to be with Lord. To mourn her transition, she leaves her husband Rev. Warren A. Parker; two brothers Elton Snowden, Sr. and Donald Snowden, Sr.; three sisters Martha Strong (Clarence), Sandra Snowden, JoAnne Snowden; four sisters-in-law Yvonne Jacobs, Marilyn Fisher, Brenda Jordan (Leonard), Marita Parker; two devoted nieces, Chira Davis and Tavalyn Louis; two faithful friends, Ms. Josephine Whipple, Mrs. Linda Ashby; and a host of nieces and nephews.

During her time with us, Margo lived a full life. She completed her education at Bates High School in Annapolis, Maryland and later went on to study at both Hampton University and Howard University.

All who knew Margo would agree that she had a great command of the English language, was extremely articulate and enjoyed talking to everyone she met. No one was a stranger to her; once she met someone, she was sure to remember their name and pronounce it correctly. She would take her time and speak with you and could talk for hours on any subject. No matter what you talked to her about, she had already read a book on it and would offer it to you as a reference.

You see, Go had literally been surrounded by books for years. She began her career in Anne Arundel County Public Library in the 1970's and continued to work in a library until her retirement from the Anne Arundel Community College in 2016.

Although she bore no biological children, Margo reared one daughter, Stacey Lamar, and was like a second mother to many. She had a special love for children and gave unique nicknames to her loved ones. Margo was also exceptionally charitable to numerous organizations. While she worked at the local public library Go would thrill us every time she came into our neighborhoods on the Bookmobile. Aunt Go was small in stature, but she could handle that bus. Perhaps it was because it was full of books, and she loved books! In addition to her passion for reading, she studied the piano, and foreign languages to include French and German. Aunt Go loved to learn and share knowledge. She always encouraged us to keep reading, studying, and learning.

In December of 1996, Margo was united with Rev. Warren Addison Parker in matrimony and made their home in Glen Burnie, Maryland. She and “Uncle Warren” enjoyed visiting with family and friends, studying their academics and instruments, and eating good food. Of course, Aunt Go ate far more than Uncle Warren. She never seemed to get full; we have no idea where she put it all! Missing a meal was never an option, nor was rushing to finish one. A good day with Go was spent at the dining room table with good meals and great conversation.

Aunt Margo loved the Lord and often spoke of the goodness of God and the comfort of His Holy Spirit. She listened to Christian teaching on the radio and committed herself to prayer and meditation. She would often share how God was teaching her and helping her to become a better Christian. This was her lifestyle until the very end of her life.

Margo always seemed so happy to see me when I'd approach the desk at the AACC library , but I expect that she felt that way toward all her colleagues. No matter how many times I referred to myself as "Susan," she would call me "Dr. Kilgard." She was so patient with all the student workers she trained, and to my delight one semester she even became a student of mine when she enrolled in my Intercultural Communications course on campus. i enjoyed reading her obituary, and I am glad she had so many loving family members in her life.Susan KilgardAACC

I worked at AACC with Margo. She was the sweetest lady you could every meet. If I needed help, I'd ask for Margo. She was such a supporter of our Community Service Committee and was always giving to any project we supported. I do remember one time she brought me flowers. She had such a big heart and surely will be missed. I am so sad to hear of her passing. Prayers to her family during this difficult time.

Mrs. Roberta thank you, thank you, thank you. Reading your story made me feel as if I were there on that trip. You described Margo to a tee. Always willing to help, a heart of compassion, and so very intelligent. She never forgot a name (that amazed me) knew something about every one she encountered because she cared and always always asks about others family. I say again thank you. You truly knew some of the best parts of my Aunt. God bless you. This really brings comfort!

I worked with Margo in the AACC Library -- in fact, I hired her, and what a smart move that was. Margo's picture sums her up. She greeted everyone with that big smile and usually remembered enough about them to ask about their family, their studies, or just how was their day. I remember the time she went to Mexico as part of her Spanish studies. One the plane was a person in the custody of a federal marshal. The marshal spoke no Spanish and the prisoner spoke no English. Was that a problem? Not after Margo found out about it. She was their interpreter for the trip. A gift from Heaven. And that was what Margo was to many of us. Reminding us to pass on God's love and who was really in charge. I trust that your tears (and mine) will soon be dried by the happy memories of her lifetime. Blessings to her family,
