I was a good friend of Butch. I lived in my parents house on College Avenue and he live down the street in a house he and his friends called Mung Hall. I graduated two years ahead of him but we took a few classes together. He was very funny and popular. He attended my wedding but that was the last time I saw him. Jim Coffey

I just found outback about Butch through Ancestry. He was my cousin growing up together playing Little League, High School baseball and basketball at North Syracuse. He was a star just like his Dad. His mother Fran was a dear lady, I always hoped we would reconnect again. I was looking at our First Communion picture standing next Sister Joseph and also our Pop Warner football team. Only great memories Cuz! Gary David, Hendersonville, NC

I played baseball with Butch at Plattsburgh. He was Delhi's own person, but the guy could hit a baseball.! Smooth as silk at first base and truthfully, I've always wondered what happened to him. I'm so sorry to hear he passed but I'm sure he lived his life to the fullest,
