Sue Bourne posted:

I knew Bernice through a Cardiac Support Group. She was such an asset to that group through the years. With the many health problems she had to contend with she never lost her pleasant manner and sense of humor and, of course, that great smile....not to mention her love of travel. The last time we saw her it was clearly pre-pandemic. I was sorry to see that she had to deal with Alzheimer's. I only hope that she had an easier time than many..... She will be missed. With sympathy, Sue Bourne
