Robert P. Fletcher III (Rob) died unexpectedly on December 5, 2021 in Annapolis, MD., at the age of 47.

Rob was born in Baltimore, MD on May 9th, 1974 and named for his grandfather Robert P. Fletcher Sr. of Norfolk, VA. Rob is the son of Hilda Smith Fletcher of Lexington, Virginia and Robert P Fletcher Jr. and the step-son of Kim Loch Fletcher of Annapolis, MD.

Rob I think of you every morning when I wake up, and every night when I look up at the stars and say my prayers. You have no idea how much I miss you, I miss hearing your voice oh, and your words of advice. Mom and I are beside ourself with grief but keep each other going by staying in contact with each other on a daily basis. We are each other's strength. Your passing will not be in vain. I love you forever your sister Tara

I will always remember my cousin as a larger than life force of energy and fun. He was full of curiosity and questions about our universe, music, projects and pranks. When I play my guitar I'll remember his grin. When I teach my children, I'll remember his challenges, always delivered with a wink. I hope he has found a place of peace. All of my love goes out to those who knew and loved him best.

My sincere condolences to Rob's family and friends. Rob did excellent work in my home renovating my huge kitchen. He was very thoughtful about the design in order to help my mother navigate with her walker when she visited me. Both my mother and father enjoyed talking to Rob. He was a talented individual with lots of potential. Gone way too soon. Praying for healing to all. Suzanne Cordes, Crownsville MD
