I don't know where to begin to share memories of "Aunt Tee". I could start way back at the shore on Back River when Con, Tee, and their sisters would gather with their families, there would be rug-rats all over the place, the men hanging out back at the garage, crabs in the pot...Great times! Then there were all the fun times at Bargar's house in Glen Burnie, around the pool, more crabs (or T's fabulous crab cakes)!!! Needless to say, it was wonderful growing up as part of the Maygers clan, and because Tee and Con were so close, they always had a special bond which us kids felt and shared. "Tee" was always a live wire, ready for a party, and fun to be around. And again I have to mention her fabulous crab cakes! She lived a long, full life. She loved her family immensely, and always made us cousins feel welcome and loved. I will miss her, but will always be glad to have been part of her extended family and to have shared in her life!
