Geraldine Brooks Offer

MAY 2, 1932 - MAY 27, 2022

Geraldine Brooks Offer was born to the late John and Gazelle Brooks in Shade Side, MD, on May 2nd, 1932. Being one of eighteen, she is the last to be reunited with her birth family.

Geraldine received her early childhood education within the Anne Arundel Public School system.

On May 3rd, 1968 she was married to Robert F. Offer, Sr. Within their fifty year union, they raised together seven sons and one daughter. Their family extended to fourteen grandchildren, thirty-nine great grand children and forty-two great great grandchildren. Her grandchildren were the highlight of her morning, afternoon and night.

Geraldine was a nurturer. She had a heart to care for those who could no longer care for themselves. Which explains why she chose to be a nurses aid.

In 1968 she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior. Geraldine was the eldest member of Victory Christian Fellowship in Crownsville, MD, under the pastoral leadership of Pastor Barnabas Offer, her nephew. Her favorite gospel group that she listened to constantly was the Gaither's. "Last Mile of the Way" by Sam Cooke was her most cherished gospel song.

She was known for her infamous crab cakes and sweet potato pies.

Through her final days Geraldine loved to play Ms. Pac' Man and the piano. While she would play the piano, she would sing her gospel hymns..

Reading, especially he evening Capitol Newspaper, was her favorite past-time.

Geraldine absolutely adored her maltise, named Texas, whom she received from Texas.. Texas was Geraldine and Robert's empty nest K9 child.
