Thomas "Brian" Thompson

NOV 13, 1978 - AUG 17, 2022

Thomas Brian Thompson, Jr., affectionately known as “Brian” was born on November 13, 1978 in Annapolis, Maryland to Thelbert Pratt and Thomas Brian Thompson, Sr.

Brian was raised in Glen Burnie, Maryland and educated in the Anne Arundel County public school system. Brian worked in retail services and small jobs painting decals on motorcycles.

His hobbies included drawing, his fish aquarium, music with a great love for the group Wu-Tang Clan so much that he has their logo tattooed on him. Brian had a passion for air brushing, cooking, and you could always find him rooting for his favorite basketball team The Golden State Warriors or his favorite football team The Chicago Bears.

Brian departed this life peacefully on August 17, 2022 in the home of his mother Thelbert Pratt and stepfather Kevin Harried where he resided in Annapolis, Maryland.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents William S. Pratt and Alverta Marie Bias Pratt, and paternal grandfather Lionel Thompson.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents Thelbert Pratt (Kevin) and Thomas Brian Thompson, Sr., his beloved paternal grandmother Sarah Thompson, three sons: Rashaad Thompson (Emiley), Anthony Thompson, and Camren Borden, five brothers: Ryan Thompson (Stacey), Brandon Thompson (Tennelia), Kedgrick Harried (Jenn), Kavonta Harried, Carlos Wells, two sisters: Charnay Thompson, and Carla Wells, one god-sister Akila Brown and one god-brother Travell Spriggs, three godchildren Da'Shaun Fowler, Kayon Fetz, and Milan Williams, and a host of family and friends.
