David Alan Nutter

AUG 2, 1991 - OCT 28, 2023

In 32 beautiful years, David Alan Nutter's flame burned bright and strong. Some would say he burned both ends of his wick, others would say he truly lived, experiencing love and life to its fullest. David was a curious and honest person who was blessed with a growth mindset, always teaching himself new things like designing computer games, cooking, auto repair, and art. David was Inherently talented. As a toddler David was found catching peacock bass the size of himself, as a teenager you might find him sketching cartoon characters, and as an adult he would apply his McGiver like talents to fix anything. He also applied his ADHD to organizing things (or re-organizing others' things...). On the ice, he displayed his passion for hockey, gliding effortlessly and showcasing his skill. He was also a skilled skateboarder, fearlessly performing tricks and pushing the boundaries. David always exhibited passion and put a part of himself into whatever he was doing. That curiosity and care wasn't limited to his hobbies, his aura extended to the people he loved as well. Empathy is defined as "the ability to understand and share the feelings of another". David truly embodied that in his fierce protection for those he loved, and his support for marginalized groups.

David Alan Nutter, 32, of Annapolis, MD, passed away on October 28, 2023. He was born in Florida on August 2, 1991 to Dennis and Catharine (McLean) Nutter. David was a beloved Partner, son, brother, and uncle. He was known for his sweet and kind nature, as well as his lovable and goofy personality. David had a curious and fearless spirit, always seeking new adventures and knowledge.

David leaves behind his loving partner, Natalie Ann Dennin, their beloved dogs Archie and Ellie, his devoted mother Cathy Nutter, his step-mother Autumn Nutter, his grandmother Vera Gunther, his dear sister Caitlyn Nutter, and his cherished nephews, Austin Alan Stone, Blake

Hello..I did not know David but I was at that exact spot moments before heading to the waterfront that day. As I was going back the road was closed and I had to pass by the scene. I dont know why but a sense of peace came over me and I pulled over for a few moments. Perhaps in a remote way he touched my life also. He sounded like a decent person who was truly loved. So sorry for your loss. May he be at peace.

David or as I've always called him Dnut, will be sincerely missed and forever in our hearts in a major way. I met David through my older brother Sean, and very quickly he became an older brother of mine as well. In that inclusive, happy, and loving way, Dnut looked out for me as a freshman in high school and made sure that upperclassmen knew who I was! It's difficult to write down all of the memories we had with our larger crew through the years, from time out on the water, snowboarding together, sporting events, visits at college, and just a great all around friendship. Nutter was truly a kindhearted guy, that lifted everyone's spirits he was around, and I'll miss him. My heart goes out to his family, and everyone who had a relationship with david. Love,Joey Oddis

Losing David has devastated our whole family. We've known David for over 17 years and during that time each family member shared a special relationship with him. He touched us and grabbed our hearts with each phase of his growth into manhood. Many fun times together. We love the man he grew into. He was a genuinely caring, energetic, loyal and loving friend. We also feel deeply blessed to have several visits with him one week prior to his passing. We talked philosophically and practically about life and it was so clear how excited he was about the future and typical David, he was passionate and energetic about all of it. A true gift. We will have special David moments to share in conversations at our home far into the future as he will always be remembered. With love from Debbie and Joe Oddis

My wife Elena and I had the absolute pleasure of meeting David and his lovely partner Natalie last year through mutual friends' Cam and Katherine. As soon as we met David, we knew this guy was something special. Natalie and David, the summer of 2022, wanted to join us all for DC Pride in June and of course they came. After seeing how David was and interacted with the LGBTQ community, it made him much more of a one of a kind guy. He didn't care what you looked like, your gender, ethnicity, whatever. He was accepting of all and there will never be anyone like him. The last time we saw David was this past April 23' for Cam's b-day party. Elena, Natalie, David, and I were being our silly selves talking about Spongebob and quoting the show. That night was filled with smiles, laughter and memories made. I will always remember that night being with him and getting to know him more. Sending love, hugs, and condolences to both families, friends, and loved ones. Rest easy David of Bikini Bottom, you're memory will live on.

You can't watch a family home video in the Wilhelm household without seeing David- sitting on my brothers bottom bunk, teaching us which skateboarding brands were the coolest, doing stunts off the back deck and tender moments with my baby sister who always said one day she would marry him. To us, David was always the coolest. David was like a brother to me and my family was lucky enough to keep a relationship with David from childhood into adulthood, which as an adult I now know is so rare. We were lucky enough to watch David fall in love, to see how Natalie completed a missing piece to the puzzle. To see David become an uncle to a beautiful little boy. To watch as David stood next to my brother as he married the love of his life. So many monumental moments in my brothers life found David beside him, making him laugh, reminding him of his youth, often times checking him and always supporting him. I'm forever grateful for that. My brother wouldn't be the incredible man he is without David. I will miss his smile, his warm, familiar way, his honesty, his goofiness. Life can be so unfair but David sure knew how to embrace it. You'll be with me forever Nutter Butter. Love to David, Natalie, Catie, Cathy & all who loved him.

Beautifully expressed Taylor, I couldn't have said it better. I would just say that as part of the extended Wilhelm family we have fond memories of David and his many adventures with Zach. He was a beautiful man who lived and loved to the fullest. He was a fiercely loyal friend to my nephew Zach. Rest in peace with the angels David
