It is the holidays 2025. Beverly was my dear friend when I was growing up. Her family took me under their wing as if I were their child. I am eternally grateful for every moment I spent in their home and at church. My Mom just passed ironically on Nov 8th this year. Some of my memories are: Sharing meals, spending the night (many), watching Dark Shadows, admiring the Beatles, sister Cynthia singing Green Beret while playing guitar, and the graciousness that mom and dad showed me as a child. God Bless ❤️

I have known Charlotte for a few years on a personal level. She was a beautiful woman and loved and spoke highly of her daughters often. She was also a fighter, even through her chronic pain and ailments these past few years. She loved politics and we would discuss this often. She verbalized prior to her passing that she just didn't want to be in pain anymore and was ready to go to heaven. I last spoke with and saw Charlotte the day before she passed. She was happy, she was calm and she was pain free. I will miss you dearly Charlotte. It gives me peace knowing you are in heaven with your husband and son in law and other family. I know you're watching over me like you told me you would. You are missed and loved.
