Venetia Blanche McNemar

APR 6, 1938 - NOV 18, 2023

Born in Annapolis on April 6, 1938, Venetia Blanche Maupin was the daughter of David Seaton Maupin, USN, from Sweetwater TN, and Bertha E. (Rawlings) Maupin, of Annapolis. Venetia often shared fond memories of growing up in Annapolis. Most were of people and places long since gone.

In 1956, she graduated from Annapolis High School and Fleet's Business School. Venetia then went to work for Governor T.R. McKeldin, until she married Donald G. Hallock, USAF, also of Annapolis, in 1957. They divorced in 1971, and she married Charles A. McNemar in 1972. They were together until his passing in 2017.

Van, as she was known to her friends, had many and varied interests, and was always eager to learn something new. She especially enjoyed traveling to foreign lands, experiencing, and learning from other cultures. She also loved her horses, collecting and restoring antiques, quilting, playing cards, and card making.

In the early hours of November 18, Venetia was called home. She leaves behind her loving son David A. Hallock, of Harwood MD, her stepson Raymond McNemar, of Fuquay-Varina NC, his wife Charm, their sons Cooper and Evan, and her lifelong friend, and sister in Christ, Althea Ward, of Tampa FL.

A memorial service will take place at noon on January 6, 2024. The service will be held at Grace Presbyterian Church, 4012 Birdsville Road in Davidsonville MD. A reception in the church's Fellowship Hall will follow.

In lieu of flowers, do something good for someone less fortunate than yourself, and give the glory to God.

Just heard about this after Van and Allan popped into my memory (due to having booked a cruise for next year).Met you on my honeymoon. We ll missed the ship at the first stop in Florida, and ended up hiring a car and driving up the Keys to Miami, then on to Mexico before finally arriving in Cozumel as the ship pulled in. The rest of the cruise we spent with you both!Love, best wishes, and thoughts.

Van; I just found out you past away, when researching to send you Christmas card! My sweet friend friend I'll miss you so much. When we went to lunch August, I thoughtl you looked very sick. But went with me to the Crab Shak. I met you at Grief Share and immediately we connected through losing our husbands. You were quite the character, I loved hearing of your travels and "your" saving. You never met a stranger, you encouraged me to believe in the Lord unconditionally. I'll miss ya, thank-you for your faith and I honestly believe you are with the Lord..and if I'm half the woman you were I'll see you in heaven one day. You often spoke of your son and I know you loved him deeply. I'm sorry for his lost and if I could be of any help to you David please contact me...

Thank you for sharing about Mom. Your friendship meant a lot to her, and she often spoke of you. I am at peace, because she is in the presence of the Lord, which is where she wanted to be.
