Bettye Jean Ezeike

AUG 30, 1955 - DEC 6, 2023

Bettye Jean Ezeike, a beacon of kindness and generosity, departed from this world on December 6, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering faith. Born on August 30, 1955, Bettye's journey through life was a testament to the strength of the human spirit and the power of kindness. She passed peacefully with her children by her side, embodying the grace and serenity that marked her life.

A memorial service to honor and celebrate her extraordinary life will be held at Antioch Apostolic Church in Arnold, MD. The service will commence at 7:00 pm EST and will be accessible via livestream at <https://theantioch.com/central/media/> for those who wish to join in commemorating her remarkable journey.

Bettye's life was a living embodiment of the family's cherished scripture, Proverbs 3:6: "In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." Her unwavering faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, was evident in every aspect of her life. She lived by the belief that "People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." – a sentiment beautifully expressed by Maya Angelou, and one that Bettye exemplified through her actions and interactions.

A quote that profoundly resonates with Bettye's essence is, "Be kind for everyone you meet is fighting a battle you know nothing about." Despite facing numerous challenges from her early years in the South, Bettye's heart remained a wellspring of kindness. She extended her warmth and generosity to everyone she encountered, even those who did not reciprocate her goodwill.

Bettye's spirit of giving knew no bounds. Whether it was through her time, wisdom, or resources, she was always ready to support those in need. Her selflessness was not confined by material wealth; she believed in giving whatever she could, a testament to her immense heart and soul.

Dear Kimmie, your mother was a beautiful lady. Your mother would be proud of how well you treat others and your leadership skills. You are a strong lady because a strong beautiful mother raised you. "Direct your children onto the right path and when they are older, they will not leave it." Proverbs 22:6.God Bless you and family!
