Maria Marigliano C/O Holy Rosary Catholi lit a candle in honor of Pamela.

Dearest Dr. Lupo, Peter, Anthony and your beautiful family members, our deepest and heartfelt condolences to you as you mourn the passing of your dear wife and mother, Pamela. We were deeply saddened to have learned of her passing and fondly remembered her at Holy Rosary Church at all the Masses last Saturday and Sunday. Pamela was a beautiful person inside and out, had a beautiful and warm smile, and a love for family and friends. We will so miss her and miss all of you at Holy Rosary. Know that you all and Pamela remain in our thoughts and prayers. May Pamela rest in peace and be in the company of the angels and saints and in the presence of our loving Creator and Father. With much affection and love, Maria, Sabatino, Antonio and Tino Marigliano and Carmela Ventresca.

Our deepest sympathy to the Lupo family. My daughter Christina, now a high school teacher, was in Pam's first and second grade combined class and I spent one afternoon each week helping with reading groups. Christina and I got to know Pam as a wonderful teacher and later friend and we often saw her at the Villa Rosa Italian Festival. She was so happy to be a grandmother. Again s our sympathy.
