Agnes Mary Mollick

OCT 16, 1937 - JAN 19, 2024

Agnes Mary Mollick (86) of Elkridge, Maryland passed away at Autumn Lake Healthcare, Waugh Chapel in Gambrills on January 19th 2024.

She was born in Baltimore, MD on October 16th 1937, and grew up on a family farm in Ellicott City. She attended Howard County High School, where she took part in animal related activities. After high school, she worked for several years at the local telephone company. She married in April 1959 and moved to Bowie, MD to start a family. Agnes spent many happy years volunteering in public schools and chaperoning at related events. She then began working for the Federal Government in 1983. Following her retirement, Agnes dedicated her life to family, friends and pets, and enjoyed trips to the beach and sporting events.

Agnes is survived by her daughters, Theresa Caddell, Catherine Mollick, and Michele Towle. A memorial mass will be held for Agnes on Saturday, February 10th at 10 o'clock AM at the St. Augustine Church in Elkridge. Following the mass, a short celebration of Agnes' life will be held at a local establishment.
