Thelma V. Booth

SEP 14, 1952 - MAY 11, 2024

And until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of His hands.

Thelma V. Booth was born September 13, 1952 in Calvert County, Maryland to the late Alfred and Bert Louise Booth. She received her education in the Calvert County Public School System.

Thelma was employed at several places including Subway, Value City, Giant, and finally Shopper's Food Warehouse of Annapolis, where she later retired.

She was passionate about the Redskins, win or lose; now known as the Washington Commanders. Thelma loved cooking and spending time with family and friends. She was an awesome mother and grandmother. Before her illness, she always crocheted blankets for people. She loved doing puzzles. She loved music; Oldies but Goodies; and planting flowers.

Thelma was preceded in death by her parents, Alfred and Bert Louise Booth; one son, Morgan Jones, III; one sister, Jeanette Josephine Booth; two brothers, Sherman Thomas and Cornelius Booth. Thelma is survived by four daughters, Glendora Booth, Courtney Jones, Chasity Jones, and Charity Jones; a Godson, Rico Wiseman; three grandchildren, Cartier Reid, Amarr McGowan, and Chase McGowan; two sisters, Martha Gross and Christine Booth; two brothers, Chester Booth and Carl Booth; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Thelma will be sorely missed and will always be in our hearts.

Carolyn Adams lit a candle in honor of Thelma.

I can remember when we moved to Eastport and meeting Thelma and her sisters. We hit it off right away and became friends and hung out together until we started spreading our wings and growing in life. Thelma was sweet, loving and I can say I had the pleasure of knowing her. Take your rest now Queen. You will forever be in our hearts. Your friends from Eastport, Stinka, Carrie Mae and Tina.

To my family, may the memories of your dear mom, Thelma last a life time. In my younger years, one of my fondest memories was spending time with Thelma and Jeanette in the tobacco field or fishing. While it was only a few encounters, I have enough laughter to last a lifetime. Be encouraged and know that God will carry you. Sending warm hugs and lots of love your way. ❤️
