Tangacylia Renee Franklin

SEP 27, 1972 - JUL 13, 2024

Tangacylia Renee Franklin was born on September 27, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland to Patricia Franklin and the late Tyrone Franklin. She departed this life on July 14, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, creativity, and dedication to her family and friends. She was 51 years old.

"Nay," "Nae," or "Mommy," as she was fondly known, received her education in the Anne Arundel County Public School system and graduated, in the Class of 1990, from Annapolis High School in Annapolis, MD. She enjoyed a fulfilling career with MAIF in Annapolis, Maryland and Luminis Health Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis, Maryland.

Renee accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age under the guidance of Fredericka Herbert at Hope United Methodist Church in Edgewater, Maryland and later joined Mt. Olive United Methodist Church in Annapolis, Maryland.

Renee was a woman of many passions. She loved traveling, creating arts and crafts, baking tasty treats, attending concerts, and singing her favorite Christmas song, "Gee Whiz, It's Christmas". Her most cherished moments were watching her son play football, where she served as the team mom and spending quality time with her family and friends. She also enjoyed keeping everyone straight.

She was preceded in death by her father, Tyrone Franklin; grandparents Alice Hall, Compton Franklin, and Herman and Elizabeth Medley; her sister, Tymecka Lewis; and godfather, Thomas Wills.

Renee's life was a testament to love, dedication, and the importance of family. Her spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Those Renee left behind to cherish her fond memories are: her son, Chase Lewis; mother, Patricia Franklin; brothers, Tyrone Franklin and Tyron "Bubba" Franklin; honorary father, Ralph Tongue; honorary brothers, Marcus Tongue, Quintin Tongue, and Joshua Tongue; adopted grandmother, Gladys Randall; godmother,

Words cannot express how saddened I was to learn of Renee's passing. I worked with her at the hospital a few years ago. She was a joy in the office, funny and like an auntie. When I was going through a personal hardship she told me she had been praying for me and I knew she meant it. That touched my heart. I'm grateful to have known her. The one thing I know for sure and for certain is that she loved her son! And love doesn't leave or change.

Tee Tee . What can I say. Just seeing this makes it real knowing you are really gone. I thank the Lord for you being in my life. When I was sick you looked out for me. You were so hardheaded never wanted to take anything in return. Sometimes I had to say Girl stop blocking my blessings. Every time I said I would buy this or that you'd be like I have one at home in my closet stash :-)) or pulling something out of your purse. Half the Girl I remember how when Chase and Mia were toddlers up to a few years ago we would always have our list for Christmas for them giving each other ideas. We laugh and say how much our mothers were so alike so stubborn. Lol I be like come get your mom sister when mine would act up. I really going to miss you. .
