Michele Adams posted:

My mother (Janice) and Aunt Joyce and Aunt Betty were all super close and known to us as the "golden girls" ... the "gray hairs" ... t"the pack" ... just endearments that included all three. We all had such a great time when they were together with lots of laughter. On our drives to see their older sister (Patty) in Kentucky they would laugh the entire way, usually because of not clearly hearing what the other said and answering a totally different question which led to explanations which were also usually ridiculous. Laughing all the way. Aunt Betty will be truly missed and has left a big hole in our family. She had a generous heart and a loving soul. Hugs and tears
