Denise Crowdy Johnson lit a candle in honor of Darrell.

Darrell and I were friends and classmates. WE talked with each other frequently about health, friendships, politics and all types of subjects. Many times we did not agree on issues. He was especially helpful to me during my frequent drives to visit my son who was hospitalized for a year. Our conversations helped to calm my spirit. I will sadly miss our conversations but I will keep his memory in my heart. May he RIP!
