Virginia Ann Tomaselli

JUL 8, 1935 - JAN 31, 2025

Virginia Ann Tomaselli, 89, passed away in Annapolis, Maryland on January 31, 2025.

Virginia was born in Washington D.C. on July 8, 1935, the daughter of Robert Cornelius Sr. and Reta Cornelius.

Virginia worked in food and beverage, retail grocery, and office work before ultimately owning her own cleaning business. Upon her retirement, she moved to Crystal River, Florida. There really wasn't anything she could not do, she would have moved mountains for her family. She was often referred to as "The Little General." She enjoyed time in West Virginia and Chincoteague with family.

Virginia is predeceased by her husband, Gerald Tomaselli. She is survived by her four children David C. Anderson Jr. (Shana), Dennis C. Anderson, De'Ann C. Farmer (Buzzy, deceased) and Darren C. Anderson; as well as multiple grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Additionally she is survived by her siblings William Cornelius and Robert Cornelius Jr.

There will be a private service for family.
