Albert C. Brandford

JUL 5, 1957 - MAY 1, 2025

Albert, A.K.A. “Babe”, known by many as a dear and beloved friend to all who knew him. He always spoke what was on his mind and never let anyone tell him he couldn’t do something. He gave his all, even when he didn’t have it. He was more to me than an ex-husband and the father of my children; he was my best friend all the way to the end. Babe enjoyed playing cards, making jokes, listening to old school music, riding bikes, and trying to dance. He was a man of many, to all people. He will be loved and missed.

Albert C. Brandford Jr., was born to the late Albert C. Brandford Sr. and Shirley Lomax. He was preceded by his siblings Ricky, Wendy, Pam, and Bird. Albert leaves behind four sons: Brad Brandford, Michael Brandford, Raheem Bradford, and Marquis Taylor; and two daughters: Niesha Brandford, and Tish Simms. He is survived by his sister Tracy Tyler, his best friends Sheila and Earl Best and a host of family and friends.
